

Hello!

As we head into a busy holiday season, I wanted to make sure I'm serving you in the best way possible. I know how busy you are, but if you can spare a couple of minutes, it would help to tell me how things are working for you.

To rate different facets of the service, just put an "x" in the appropriate column below. If you want, you can write comments, but you certainly don't have to. If you have a problem area and don't have time to go into it, we'll talk when you have a chance.
