Say hello to perfect meals

Chef Susan Smith, owner of Kitchen Delights, offers a new twist on catering for special events. Standard fare is no longer the norm.

Smith started Kitchen Delights to provide an alternative for individuals in need of great food at an affordable rate to enhance weddings, graduations or any special gathering or event.

After a free consultation to determine food preferences, dietary needs and special requests, the client may concentrate on other aspects of the event, knowing the custom created meals will be mouthwatering and memorable.

Smith specializes in Norwegian and Asian cuisine but offers a wide assortment of themes and cuisines to select from.
